Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

Approx 2,000 people still on Parliament Hill with several more thousand on the streets downtown.

Traffic is still highly congested in the downtown core with thousands of vehicles. , with the loss of several north/south routes. Albert & Slater are still moving but there has been some losses. We are encountering instances of trucks bypassing police blockades entering the congested core. Some vehicles have been left double parked along SJAM.

A NOTAM had been issued by the airport earlier in the day and was breached by a helicopter. This incident is being investigated by Transport Canada.

MacDonald-Cartier bridge has been partially re-opened to traffic. The Chaudiere Bridge is open for Emergency and Health Services Personnel with ID.

Members have been dedicating resources to assist in the closure of the Rideau Centre.

Officers are encountering challenges with sporadic road blockages by trucks, most of which have been mitigated by our members after negotiations.

There has been no violence reported and injuries have been related to slip and falls or medical calls for service
